About the Society

Society for Community Mobilization for Sustainable Development (MOBILIZATION) is a registered professional society established in the year of 2003 for mobilizing the society for sustainable development. About 850 eminent researchers, academicians, planners, grass root mass mobilizers and students are its active members. The Society has successfully organized six national seminars, published books on relevant issues, bringing out six monthly NAAS rated (ID: J118, Rating 3.46) on-line research journal "Journal of Community Mobilization for Sustainable Development" (ISSN 2230 – 9047) besides other academic/developmental activities.

Invitation

Dear colleagues,

It is indeed a pleasurable opportunity and pleasing sense of duty to welcome you all at 7th National Seminar of Society for Community Mobilization for Sustainable Development on "Sustainable Rural Livelihood: Technological and Institutional Perspective I" to be held from Jan. 8 - 10, 2015 at Faculty of Agriculture, Sher-e-Kashmir University of Agricultural Sciences and Technology of Jammu, Main Campus Chatha. The national seminar is aimed to bring all the professionals working in the different field of agriculture and other allied subjects under an umbrella in an inter-disciplinary approach to provide one effective platform for deliberations. The forum will provide the best opportunity for interaction of knowledge and ideas amongst the field functionaries, farmers, scientists, researchers, teachers, students, technologists, industry people and policy makers for overall improvement of rural community.

We look forward to meet you in January, 2015 and for your active participation, contribution and valued discussion with eminent scientists from all over the country which in turn will help to the success of the conference.
